

Heavy Metal 2012

Broome Co.

Two Sessions: Sept. 28 - 30 or Oct. 26 - 28
Harpursville, New York

Large heavy vehicles surround us on our roads. The time is NOW to train for incidents involving the rescue of trapped occupants from incidents involving these large vehicles.

Presented by the most skilled and knowledgeable staff of instructors, you will receive an education "second to none" in Heavy Vehicle Rescue. The course outline follows NFPA 1670** guidelines.

This is not an "entry level" class on vehicle rescue. Minimal time is spent on reviewing the basic tasks associated with vehicle rescue incidents. This is as "real deal" as you will find, including the high level of risk and hazards involved with working in, on and around overturned or suspended heavy vehicles.

You will receive both classroom time, "the why" of what we do", and the practical scenarios, "the how" we do what we do", over-turns, under-rides, stacks, buses and other objects and equipment are the "normals" for this program. Usage of tools, hydraulic and manual, airbags, cribbing, shoring, slings, chains, winches and more will be required.

** NFPA 1670 - Tech Rescue Incidents, 2009 Edition, Chap 8, Tech Level Joint Fire/Rescue and Wrecker training.
