BROOME COUNTY, NEW YORK

2009 RECRUITMENT OPEN HOUSE TAKES IN 24 VOLUNTEERS

After taking in 60 new members in 2008, this year's open house has added another 21 new members to the ranks of volunteers in Broome County. There are still a lot of fire companies we have not heard from, so please let us know how your fire company did at the Recruitment open house.

Many fire companies complained about the weather, which was extremely cold. And many have suggested we try this event again when the weather is better.

Prior to the event Fire Coordinator Brett Chellis said he referred five people to various fire departments around the county. The Broome County Firefighters Website had seven people contact us about joining and we referred these to various fire companies.

If your fire company is not listed below, please e-mail us at broomecofire@stny.rr.com and let us know how your fire company did with recruitment at the Open House.
