Subject: FW: Sidney LifeNet 7-8 GOING ON-LINE TOMORROW MORNING

All:

It looks like LifeNet 7-8 (Sidney base) is going on line at 07:00 tomorrow AM

Also, I have attached (as a PDF file) a map provided by LifeNet, showing a 20 NM ring (approx. 10 minute response time) around each of their bases (and those of two Syracuse-based ships run by other programs). Even more useful are the "isochronal" lines delineating which base is closest to any given point on the map, all other factors being equal.

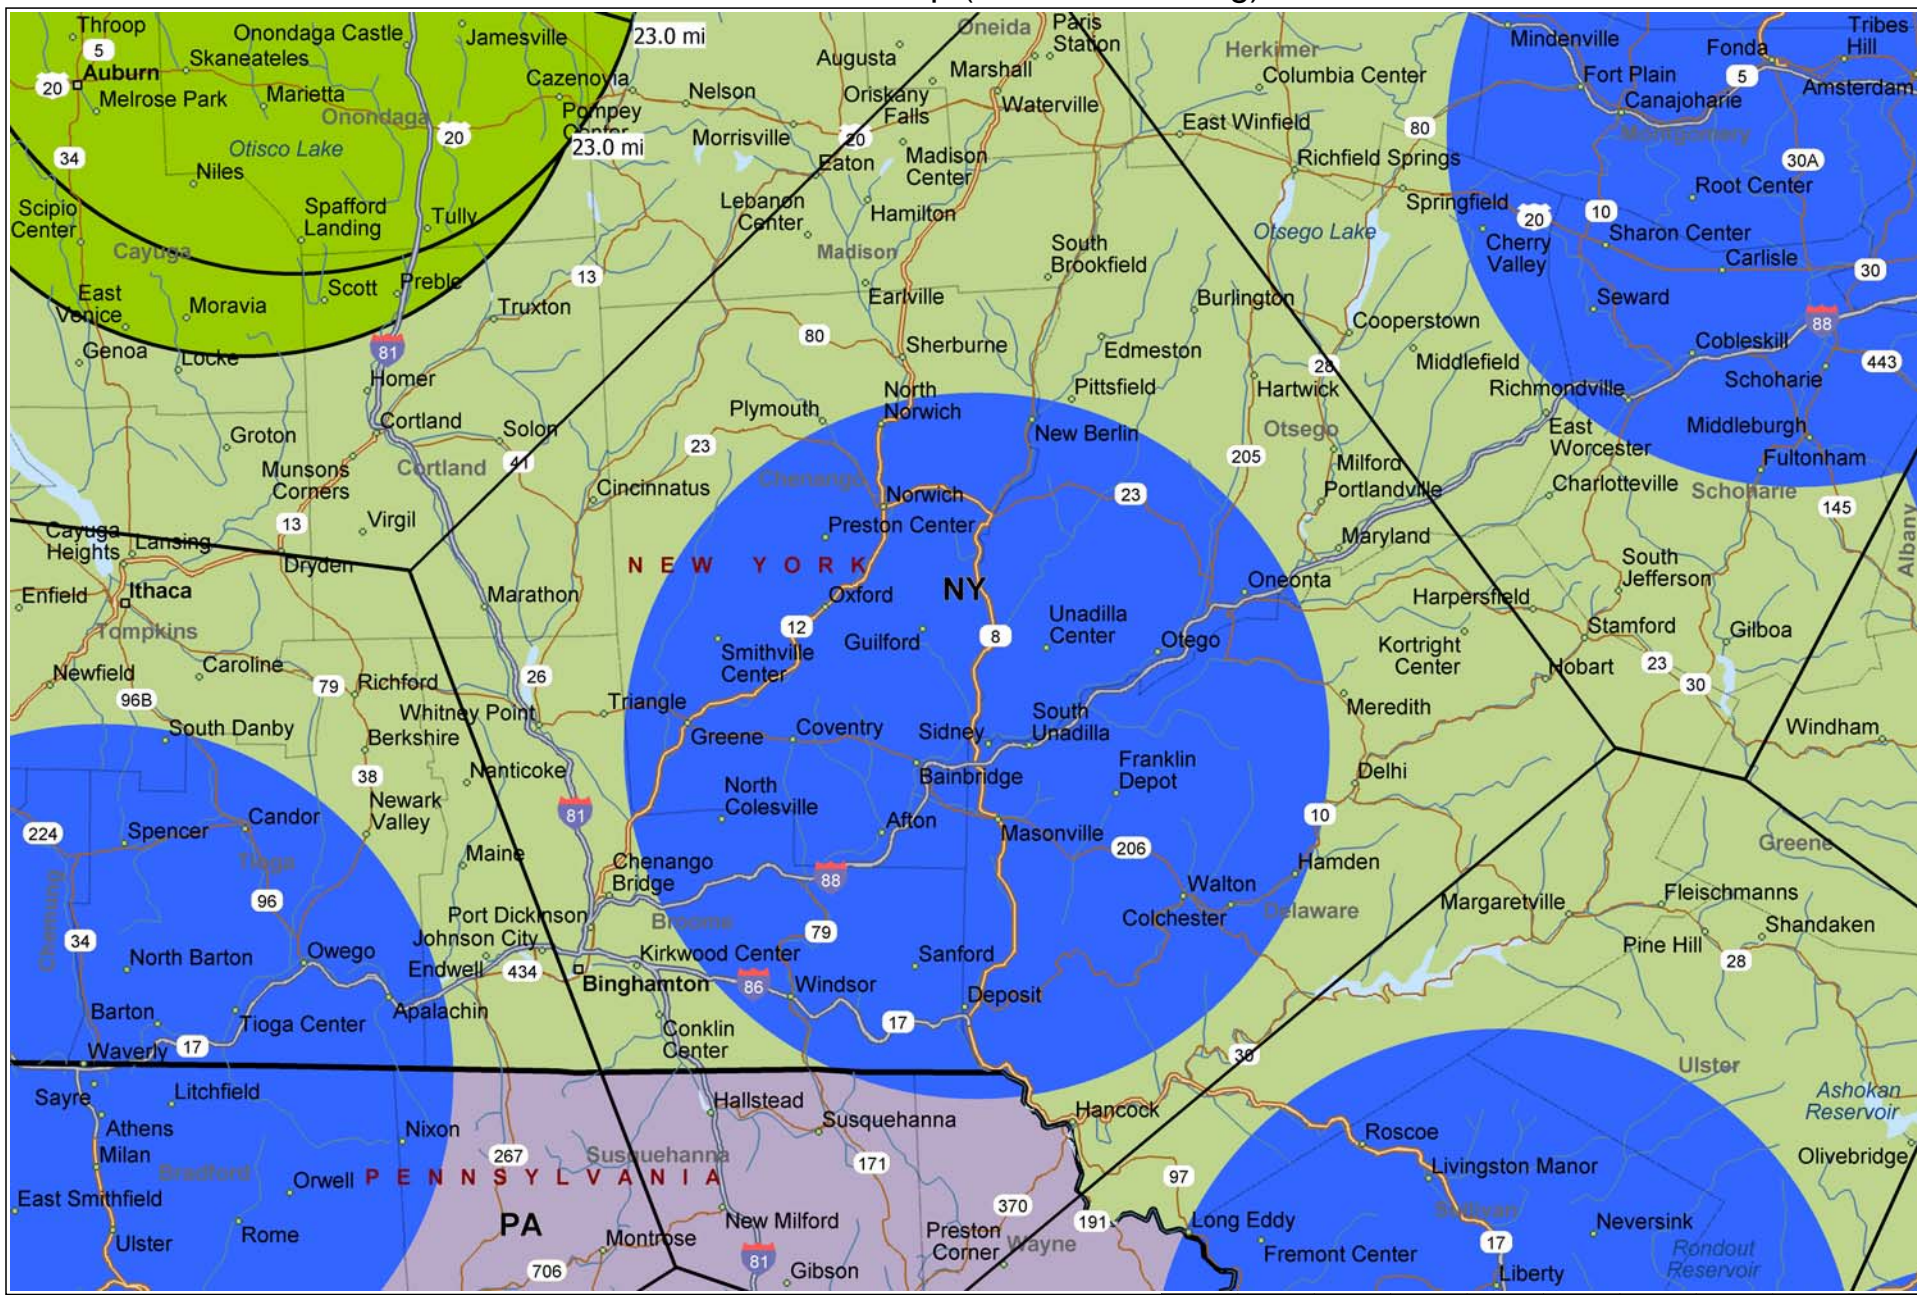

We are in the process of setting up three (East, North, Central) ground safety/landing zone trainings with LifeNet during April, and will share the dates and locations with you as soon as they are finalized.

Please advise me if you have any immediate questions. Thanks!
